

Table of Contents

Table of Contents

Introduction

BERT ROEBBEN, Living and Learning in the Presence of the Other. Defining Religious Education Inclusively

ANITA MÜLLER-FRIESE, “Now, the Future Absolutely Must Become a Success!” On Participation in Education of Disadvantaged Children and Adolescents

AMOS YONG, Disability from the Margins to the Center. Hospitality and Inclusion in the Church

JOYCE ANN MERCER, Attending to Children, Attending to God. Children with ADHD and Christian Spirituality

FRANZ FEINER, Even Jesus Had to Learn to Think and to Act Inclusively. Inclusion in the Perception of Parents and Teachers

KATHARINA KAMMEYER, “Small Stories and Master Stories”. Student’s Biographical Narrations in Inclusive Religious Education Classes and the Development of Hermeneutical and Personal Competences

HARTMUT RUPP, Resilience of and Theologizing with Children

WOLFHARD SCHWEIKER, Including the Difference – Embracing the New Vision

STEFAN ANDERSSOHN, An Alternative Approach to Religiosity and Disability. Biographical Issues and Cognitive Structures as Elements of a Potential Inclusive Theory of Religious Development

DZINTRA ILIŠKO, Breaking the Circle of Exclusion in Latvia. The Sustainability Perspective

KATHRIN HANNEKEN, Religious Education in German 'Co-Educational Classes of Students With/Without Special Needs'. Empirical Studies on Teachers' Perspectives

List of Contributors

Acknowledgements